

the OLD Shades

This was a high-specification fit-out of a traditional London Pub which is a listed building in Whitehall. The main feature of the room is the ornate bar which has a pewter top and antique tiled front.

Works included new ceilings and new and refurbished floor finishes and a complete refurbishment of the toilets. Other work included re-routing the mechanical installation and electrical supplies.

The project was completed successfully in five and a half weeks.

WHITEHALL

Client • Faucet Inn Ltd

